KIMMEL SAYS NAVY OFFICIALS DENIED HIM INFORMATION HE NEEDED TO AMBUSH THE JAPS

Retired Commander of Fleet Calls "Misleading" the "War Warning" Message Sent Him By Adm. Stark Ten Days Before Dec. 7

IN DIRECT OPPOSITION TO PREVIOUS TESTIMONY

Washington, Jan. 15—(P)—Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel today contended Washington naval officials denied him information he said might have made Pearl Harbor an ambush for the Japanese.

In a 25,000-word statement submitted to the senate-house inquiry committee, the retired commander-in-chief of the fleet called "misleading" the "war warning" message sent to him by Admiral Harold R. Stark, then chief of naval operations, 10 days before the attack of December 7, 1941.

Kimmel also continued: "He was not supplied information available in Washington from intercepted messages 'which told when and where Japan would probably strike.'"

2. That, withholding this information, the navy should have instructed him specifically to "be on the alert against a hostile overseas raid."

3. If he had had Washington knowledge of intercepted Japanese messages, he would have considered revising war plans to provide "an opportunity to ambush the Japanese striking force as it ventured to Hawaii."

4. Orders he received the same day he got the Nov. 27 "war warning" message to transport army planes and troops to Midway and Wake, "indicated to me that responsible authorities in Washington did not consider an air raid on Pearl Harbor either imminent or probable."

5. The war and navy departments knew the long range reconnaissance from Oahu was to be flown "only when a carrier strike against the islands was probable within narrow time limits."

6. He would have ordered the fleet to sea if he had known what Washington knew on successive dates from Nov. 27 to Dec. 7, but without this information he kept his battlechips in harbor where he thought them safer against air attack than at sea without carrier support.

Kimmel's testimony placed him in direct opposition to much of the committee heard from Admiral Stark, the last witness before it recessed January 5 until today. Stark said he considered the "war warning" message sufficient to alert the fleet to a war basis.

When Kimmel's testimony is completed, possibly late this week, Major General Walter C. Short, Hawaiian commander at the time of the attack, is expected to follow him to the stand.

Kimmel told the committee in his statement that "no reasonable man" could have been expected to consider that Stark's Nov. 21 "war warning" message "was intended to suggest the likelihood of an attack in the Hawaiian area."

The message said diplomatic negotiations had ceased and "an aggressive move by Japan is expected within the next few days." It said there were indications of "an amphibious expedition against either the Philippines, Thai or Kra peninsula or possible Borneo," advising Kimmel to "execute an appropriate defensive deployment xxx."

This did not warn the fleet of an attack in the Hawaiian area, Kimmel said, adding:

"It did not state expressly or by implication that an attack on the Hawaiian area was imminent or probable. It did not repeat or modify the advice previously given me by the navy department that no move against Pearl Harbor was imminent or planned by Japan. The phrase 'war warning' cannot (Turn to Page Seven)

Automobile Is New Clue In Kidnaping

Chicago, Jan. 15—(P)—A woman who left an automobile in a garage for a repair job Jan. 7, the day of the kidnaping of Suzanne Degnan, 6, and a man friend was seized today by the police for questioning.

Chicago, Jan. 15—(P)—An automobile left in a service station Jan. 7, the day of the kidnaping of Suzanne Degnan, 6, became a clue today in the investigation of the brutal crime.

Detectives said they found stains, which might be blood stains, on the floor mat of the convertible sedan, a blanket which appeared to have been cleaned recently and an oily piece of paper similar to paper on which the kidnaper wrote a $20,000 ransom note. These were to be examined at the police crime detection laboratory.

A woman left the car in the station on the far west side for ignition repairs. She was driven away from there by a man in another car.

Detectives checked the license number to a woman living in suburban Glenview. They learned the identity of the man, not her husband, and began search for the two persons.

UNO Delegation Divided On Status of Conquered Japan

By JACK SMITH
London, Jan. 15—(P)—Official sources disclosed today that American civilian and military officials at the United Nations General Assembly were split over whether American-conquered Japanese islands should be placed under UNO sovereignty.

The delegates themselves were said to favor a trusteeship plan for the Pacific islands, while their special military advisor, Gen. George C. Kenney, argued that the United States should retain any islands of military value.

Delegates said that if Kenney held out the disagreement could be considered as tantamount to an issue between the state and war departments and would have to be referred to President Truman for settlement.

Kenney, chief of the Pacific air staff, could not be reached immediately for comment. Previously expressed American military opinion however, was that the United States should not run the risk of having to reconquer islands won with American blood.

On the other hand, officials said that the state department argued that the United States had agreed to preliminary trusteeship plans during the San Francisco conference and should not set a precedent for others by withholding the islands.

Formation of trusteeship policies was one of the major tasks awaiting the assembly, which remained adjourned today until 4 p. m. (11 a. m. Eastern Standard Time) to allow time for committee meetings.

There was some disagreement among the American delegation as to exactly how much control the United States would lose if she agreed to United Nations sovereignty over the Pacific islands.

Perhaps She Should Be Given a Refund

Hastings, Neb., Jan. 15—A woman sitting in her parked automobile, looking disconsolately at the parking meter on the curb, hailed a police officer.

"I've got 20 minutes left on that meter," she told the policeman. "Do I have to sit here until it's up?"

The cop decided, quickly, she could drive away, without violating any traffic law.

At present, 50 points or three and a half years' service are required for discharge.

Furthermore, Eisenhower assured an informal meeting of senators and representatives at the Congressional Library, "every surplus man will be out right away unless his points are so low that he can replace someone else."

In disclosing the April 30 and July 1 goals, the army chief of staff excluded volunteers from the discharge provisions and made plain that the points are to be computed on the basis of last Sept. 2.

Eisenhower went before the meeting to offer the army's explanation of its demobilization system, the target of criticism by congressmen and GIs alike.

Eisenhower warned that the army's organization "will collapse" if it demobilizes too fast but pledged that every man eligible for discharge by July 1 will be out of service by that time.

Eisenhower said it was not possible to discharge all men with two years' service by March 20 as originally contemplated.

"It would mean that another 2,000,000 men would be out on that date beyond our expectations," Eisenhower said.

"It would mean a complete rearranging of our occupational forces as to jeopardize the results of months of work in bringing order out of chaos."

Explaining the army's demobilization policy at an informal senate-house meeting at the Congressional Library, the chief of staff declared that the recently announced slowdown in demobilization was necessary to prevent the army from being depleted by March 1.

But, even with the slowdown, he said:

"There is not a single man who is to be discharged by July 1 who won't be discharged by July 1."

He prefaced his remarks with a flat statement that demobilization is not tied in with the war department's sponsorship of university military training or with any desire of high ranking officers to retain their positions.

Some congressmen and some GIs have suggested such might be the case.

Welch, W. Va., Jan. 15—(P)—Seventy-five coal miners miraculously escaped alive today after a tremendous blast in the No. 9 Havaco mine on the outskirts of Welch, but the fate of 192 others was in doubt as rescuers drove into the smoke and dust-filled shaft workings.

E. L. Chatfield, an inspector-at-large of the state mines department, said he was informed that 297 men were in the workings when the explosion occurred, about 9:30 a. m.

The force was so terrific that negro pupils in a school house and workers in the store and office of the New River and Pocahontas Consolidated Coal Company, from 500 to 1,000 feet away, were injured by shattered glass and debris. The mine is operated by New River and Pocahontas.

Official estimates said from a third to one-half of those coming from the mine alive walked up the shaft steps, which somehow remained intact, although the tangle appeared to be a total wreck. The shaft is about 400 feet deep.

Others had to be helped or dragged from the mine, and some (Turn to Page Seven)

Erie Works Shut Down By Walkout

Erie, Jan. 15—(P)—A strike by employees of the General Electric Corporation's large Erie works, employing more than 9,000, shut down the plant today and hundreds of pickets marched about the plant gates in a snowstorm and in shivering temperature.

Business Agent James A. Kennedy of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers Union, estimated 3,000 pickets were on duty. He added that every able bodied man who is a member of the union would be expected to take part in the picketing activity during the walkout.

Picketing was orderly. Union officials arranged for the workers to be on duty in three hour shifts. Feeding quarters were set up in the union hall about a half mile from the plant.

The strike was the largest ever experienced in Erie.

EISENHOWER IS HEARD ON DEMOBILIZING

Chief of Staff Says That By April 30 Every Man With 45 Points Will Be Out of Army

DEFENDS QUOTA PLAN

Washington, Jan. 15 (P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told congressmen today that by April 30 every enlisted man with 45 points or 30 months service will be out of the army or on the way to separation centers.

By July 1 he said, every enlisted man with 40 points or two years' service will be out or in the process of being discharged.

At present, 50 points or three and a half years' service are required for discharge.

Furthermore, Eisenhower assured an informal meeting of senators and representatives at the Congressional Library, "every surplus man will be out right away unless his points are so low that he can replace someone else."

Employees Of State Seek a 20% Increase

Harrisburg, Jan. 15—(P)—More than 22,000 commonwealth employees, including 9,000 at state institutions, were asked today to join in signing petitions seeking a 20 per cent cost-of-living salary increase.

Both the AFL and CIO are leading the drive for wage boosts.

Reuben H. Miller, organizer for the Pennsylvania Council of Public Employees (APLE), said the petitions will be circulated in all departments of the state government during the next 10 days and then presented to the governor.

Petitions from workers in the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, who are members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees have already been presented to the governor's office. No action has been taken thus far, Miller added.

At Philadelphia, Max Brodsky, secretary-treasurer of District 3 State, County and Municipal Workers of America (CIO), said his union will present a separate petition to the governor today.

The union represents employees in State Liquor Stores, the Department of Public Assistance, the Unemployment Compensation and Employment Service division, state hospitals and other institutions.

The AFL-Council, at the same time, will ask that the reclassification study made at Governor Martin's request be put into effect for employees earning $3,000 or more a year, Miller said.

He explained that the higher-paid employees have received no (Turn to Page Seven)

German Myth About Athenia Is Exploded

By JAMES F. KING

Nuernberg, Germany, Jan. 15—(P)—An affidavit by Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz introduced before the international military tribunal today exploded the German myth that the British liner Athenia was sunk by the British themselves in 1939 in a plot to push the United States into the war.

Great Britain demanded the conviction of Doenitz, successor to Adolf Hitler as fuhrer of Germany, as a "murderer" for U-boat attacks on helpless sailors in lifeboats and for ordering the ruthless shooting of commandos.

Col. H. J. Phillimore, a British prosecutor, told the tribunal trying Doenitz and 21 other top Nazis was "no plain sailor" and was a key cog behind Nazi preparations for aggressive war.

The affidavit, signed by Doenitz on Nov. 17, 1945, said the Athenia was sunk by the German U-30 on the day Britain entered the war. On board were 1,500 passengers, some of them Americans. German propaganda at the time tried to lay the blame on Winston Churchill.

Boasting the case against Doenitz, Lt. Cmdr. Karl-Heinz Moehle, a German submarine commander who sank 20 Allied ships, testified against the admiral, asserting that he did not want to be blamed for his former chief's order to shoot up lifeboats.

Warren Physician Is Administering To Game Boy Patient

Philadelphia, Jan. 15—(P)—Eleven-year-old Carl Kohlenberg, Jr., must get a blood transfusion once a week to live.

The youngster—described by doctors at Methodist Episcopal Hospital as "the gamiest little patient we have ever seen" because he never cries—was critically burned Dec. 1 on the lower part of his body and both legs.

Doctors at first considered his case hopeless.

Now, says Dr. William Chapman, "we have arrived at a point where we need a donor of type A blood every week to bring the boy to full recovery."

Volunteer blood donors are sought because Carl's family can't afford to pay professionals.

Blood plasma, he said, is no good since only a transfusion of whole blood each week will heal the numerous skin grafts.

"Carl is a great kid," Dr. Chapman asserted. "He has never cried. Every five or six days he begins to get weak and asks, 'doctor, when are you going to give me more blood? I always feel so good after you do that.'"

So far, Carl has had eight transfusions and has received grafts of skin from 10 persons.

(Note: The physician mentioned in the above dispatch is Dr. William Chapman, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Chapman, of this city.)

Kinzua Dam Project Believed To Be Listed on 1947 Agenda

By CHARLES B. HOLSTEIN

Washington, Jan. 15—(P)—Several congressmen believed today two long-standing western Pennsylvania flood control projects are on the war department's recommended 1947 starting list.

They are the $35,700,000 Allegheny river (Kinzua) reservoir—biggest and most expensive of eight dams now functioning or proposed for the Allegheny and Monongahela valleys—and a $6,000,000 to $8,000,000 special series of projects for Elk county.

The list of projects recommended by the war department for funds in the 1947 budget has not been made public.

However Rep. Gavin (R-Pa.) told a reporter he had been advised by army engineers some time ago that they intended recommending a $216,000 initial appropriation for the Elk county projects.

Capt. William B. Rodgers, chairman of the Flood Control Committee of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, made a statement yesterday before the house war department appropriations subcommittee which led some congressmen to believe the army has asked $173,000 in the 1947 fiscal year to start work on the Allegheny river reservoir.

Their belief was based on the fact that Rodgers urged exactly that amount be provided.

These congressional sources, who asked not to be quoted, told a reporter the engineers work closely with local flood control groups, such as Rodgers' committee, and frequently take them into their confidence. They added that Rodgers' figure, therefore, was probably based on official requests not yet made available to individual congressmen.

Gavin said he urged the subcommittee to act on the matter. (Turn to Page Seven)

CHURCHILL IS NOT PLANNING TO RETIRE

New York, Jan. 15—(P)—Winston Churchill, Britain's colorful wartime prime minister, was enroute by train today to Miami, Fla., where he plans to spend the greater part of a six week American visit.

The ruddy-faced Englishman, his inevitable black cigar clasped between his teeth, and attired in the uniform of the royal yacht squadron, arrived here last night aboard the giant liner Queen Elizabeth and in a news conference told reporters he was not yet ready to retire from politics.

"I have no intention whatever of ceasing to lead the Conservative party until I am convinced that they have found someone to take my place, and I hope that will occur," he said.

Congress Shows Signs Of Entering Into Labor Issue

Washington, Jan. 15—(P)—Congress, back on the job after a recess that saw industrial strife flare to new peaks, showed signs today of moving swiftly into the strike picture.

Two members of the senate labor committee, a Republican and a Democrat, forecast quick action on President Truman's request for a "fact-finding" measure. The committee resumed hearings with William H. Davis, former War Labor Board member chairman and economic stabilizer as its lead-off witness.

Under Mr. Truman's proposal such fact-finding boards as those in the General Motors and steel cases would be armed with legal authority to subpoena corporation books. And unions would be marred from striking for 30 days while fact-finding was underway.

Two other senators, Eastland (D-Miss.) and O'Daniel (D-Tex.) sought senate action without waiting for the labor committee to complete its hearings. They noted that Mr. Truman had asked immediate action early in December and announced they would ask the senate to discharge the labor committee and act as soon as the chamber meets again, on Thursday.

"It is apparent to us that the present wave of strikes is inspired and engineered from Moscow," Eastland and O'Daniel said in a joint statement, "and it is a deliberate effort to take over the American government step by step."

NATION'S IDLE NEARING THE 600,000 MARK

Call of 16 States Is the Largest Single One In Effect Since the War Ended

HALT VITAL PRODUCTS

By the Associated Press

The nation's major sources of new home and industrial electrical appliances were shut off today when 200,000 CIO electrical workers went on strike in 16 states, turning the number of strike-idle in the country to more than 600,000—highest since before the war.

Albert J. Fitzgerald, international president of the CIO United Electrical Workers, said at 8 a. m. that the work stoppage was "100 per cent effective" in plants from which reports had been received up to that time.

The strike, in support of union demands for a 30 per cent wage rate boost, was called against General Electric, Westinghouse and General Motors, which together produce the bulk of the nation's electrical appliances. These include refrigerators, washing machines, electric range and oil heaters, radios, lamps and light bulbs.

Fitzgerald said the walkout was 100 per cent effective by 8 a. m. in plants at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, Lynn and Springfield, Mass.; Schenectady, N. Y.; Bloomfield, Newark, and Jersey City, N. J., and Dayton, O.

He added 57,000 women and 25,000 salaried and white collar workers participated in the work stoppage.

Work stoppages involving 2,131 CIO United Steelworkers halted production today at two plants of the Bethlehem Steel Company and two divisions of the Aviation Corporation at Williamsport.

Currently the largest work stoppage against an industry is against General Motors, involving 175,000 CIO United Auto Workers who struck last Nov. 21 in support of demands for a 30 per cent wage increase.

Effects of the Electrical Workers' walkout, which involved a major part of the country's production of home and industrial electrical appliances, were not immediately determined. The strike came one day after the scheduled work stoppage by 800,000 Steelworkers, which has been delayed one week. Another major walkout, by some 328,000 packing-house workers, is set for midnight tonight.

The walkout by the Electrical Workers, who had demanded wage increases of $2 a day, was on schedule, said international headquarters of the CIO United Electrical Workers in New York City. Last minute efforts by federal conciliators to avert the strike were unsuccessful.

At Schenectady, N. Y., General Electric's largest plant was closed as more than 15,000 production workers struck at 6 a. m. EST. Electric lines were being organized. Between 10,000 and 12,000 salaried workers at the plant had been instructed to remain home in event of a work stoppage.

The strike call for the 200,000 workers in 75 plants involved plants in California, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Maryland, West Virginia and Kentucky.

Included among products manufactured by the firms are electric refrigerators, radios, vacuum cleaners, electric stoves, lamps and light bulbs.

As the huge electrical walkout got underway government conciliators, headed by Edgar L. Warren, (Turn to Page Seven)

Colliery Picketed By War Veterans

Lansford, Jan. 15—(P)—Sixty-five war veterans, some wearing uniforms and carrying flags, picketed an anthracite colliery for a short time today because, a spokesman for the group said, they can't get jobs.

The 1,000 miners working at the Nesquehoning colliery of the Edison Anthracite Coal Company, four miles from this Panther Valley town, refused to cross the picket lines and went home.

The Nesquehoning local of the United Mine Workers called an emergency meeting for tonight to discuss whether the miners plan to return to work.

A representative of the veterans said they planned to picket all mines in the Panther Valley. About 6,000 work in the Tamaqua-Caldale-Lansford area.

The company declined to comment on the action of the ex-GIs, but asserted all former workers at the mines who had entered military service were reemployed.

Sportsmen Approve Dry Fly Fishing Plan in Spring Creek

Frank Geer and Guy McCluskey represented Warren county sportsmen at a meeting of Northwest Division Federated Sportsmen's Clubs held in the Exchange Hotel at Franklin, Sunday afternoon. Approximately 75 sportsmen including delegates from Venango, Warren, Forest, Clarion, Lawrence, Crawford, Butler, Erie and Mercer counties were present.

Raymond Armstrong, of Guys Mills, president of the Northwest Division presided at the meeting and Seth Myers, of Sharon, acted as secretary.

Robert Lambertson, vice president State Game Commission, speaking to the quarterly conference of the Northwest Division, Federated Sportsmen's Clubs, in the Exchange Hotel Sunday afternoon, described the game situation in the state and told the forum he would welcome suggestions from members seeking to improve hunting in Pennsylvania.

The resolutions which have been adopted by the various sportsmen's clubs in the division were presented and discussed.

The division council voted to approve a number of the resolutions to be presented to the state conference of Federated Sports Clubs to be held Feb. 15 and 16 in Harrisburg.

It was approved that the same bounty on fox would be retained this year as last year. Game Commissioner Lambertson told the group that 22,000 foxes were taken in Pennsylvania during 1945.

The Spring Creek project in Warren County for dry fly fishing was approved by the division council and it was urged that the State Fish Commission make certain improvements at the mouth of the stream. The division will finance the project, which is estimated to cost $500, if the State Fish Commission cannot make the desired improvements. Two and a quarter miles of stream will be stocked and patrolled and reserved by dry fly fishing only.

The jack rabbit season will be the same this year as it was last and be conducted under the same regulations, the delegates proposed.

The Mercer County sportsmen proposed a resolution to urge the state to replace a bridge over French Creek to Venango County and it was approved by the delegates. The bridge was washed out several years ago and it is believed that a new one would improve fishing conditions.

Robert C. Kaufman, of Cranberry Township, represented the Venango County sportsmen's clubs at the conference yesterday. Many sportsmen from Franklin and Oil City attended the meeting.

Hayes T. Englert, of Oil City district game supervisor, was present and gave a brief address. Fish Warden Julius Ahrens, Oil City; Rosey White, of Lawrence County and Walter Webber, of Erie County, also attended. Ralph Ewing, of Polk, game protector, spoke.

LIVING THERMOMETER
Jay Fees, of the State Forestry office this morning slipped some information to The Times-Mirror relative to the Rhododendron as a living thermometer. He says that a rhododendron just outside a window will furnish real weather forecasts. When each leaf curls back and points straight down, it is best to wear an extra sweater and warm mittens, too. But when their leaves rise 20 degrees from the vertical it is safe to unwind the mufflers, lay off the sweater and pants. When the leaves rise above 45 degrees from the vertical, water proof boots will be useful.

Will Combine Anniversary And Assembly

The annual meeting of the St. Paul's Lutheran church was held in the church parlors last evening before a large turnout of members. Preliminary plans were made for the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the founding of the church and for the Conference convention to be held in St. Paul's.

The convention will be held May 1 to 5 and will be attended by pastors and lay representatives from over 100 churches in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Washington, D. C., Virginia, Alabama, Florida, Ohio.

Since the congregation was organized the 7th of May, 1871, it was decided that the anniversary celebration be combined with the Conference convention. The committee chosen to take charge of arrangements consists of the following: Richard Osterman, Ned Johnson, Mrs. Carl Lundahl, Miss Sigrid Johnson, and C. Walter Johnson.

The following were elected to serve as deacons for a period of three years: Everett Borg, C. Walter Johnson, Harold Johnson. Richard Osterman was elected to serve as Sunday school superintendent, with Harold A. Nelson as assistant. The following were elected to the position of trustees for a period of three years: Gust Carlson, Ludwig Peterson and Elmer Lundahl.

Mrs. Emil Jacobson was reelected organist, and Harvey Horn was reelected choir director. Carl J. G. Johnson was elected head usher. J. F. Anderson was elected as the congregation's representative at the Conference convention, with Frank Elkey as alternate. Carl Danielson was elected representative at the district convention. Miss Dorothy Peterson was elected recording secretary.

All the reports indicated that the past year had been very satisfactory, and the congregation is rejoicing over having paid in full all obligations, and having liquidated all indebtedness.

Death Claims Local Street Commissioner

Edward T. Beck, one of Warren's best known and highly respected citizens passed away Monday evening at the Warren General Hospital at 10:13 o'clock following an illness of some duration. Mr. Beck was born in Sunbury September 13, 1873, and came to Warren when a small boy with his parents, Charles I. and Mary Beck. His father passed away some years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Isabella Wilson Beck; his mother, Mrs. Mary Russell Beck, and one daughter, Mrs. Leonard Crandall, of Allentown. Two grandchildren also survive.

In addition Mr. Beck leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. John H. Beachler, of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Walter Beck, of Azusa, Cal.; and Mrs. Walter Converse, of Leetonia, Ohio. Mr. Beck followed his father's footsteps as a contractor and worked with his father on many buildings in this city. Later he became interested in construction work in Florida and among the big contracts on which he worked was the famed Ringling Brothers Museum at Sarasota, Fla. He also did some work on the west coast. For some years he was with the New York state highway department and built a large section of highway north from Bonus Point.

Returning to Warren Mr. Beck built the highway between Warren and Irvine and also had a large part in the building of Route 219 between Kane and Wilcox. In Warren he paved several streets and laid the pavement on Crescent Park, the first of that type used in this section.

Possessed of an amiable and jovial disposition he was affiliated with many organizations in this city and in all he was a valuable adviser and member. Mr. Beck was especially prominent in the Masonic bodies and was at one time Master of North Star Lodge No. 241 F. and A. M. He was also affiliated with the Occidental Chapter and Warren Commandery and of the Zeta Temple A. O. U. M. S. of Erie. He was a member of the Warren Lodge BPOE in which he was active in affairs for many years. He was also a member of the board of governors of the Warren County Motor Club. Elected as street commissioner of Warren borough in January, 1938, he has served most faithfully since that time. During his regime in the street department there has been a large amount of work done on Warren's streets and they are at present in the best condition in many years.

Funeral services will be held from the Lutz Funeral Home Thursday afternoon at 2:30, with the Rev. C. T. Warren officiating. Interment will be made in Oakland cemetery.

Owners Of Cafes Must Observe Law

All liquor establishments in the state were warned yesterday by the state liquor control board to conduct their establishments in an orderly manner or face loss of license.

Frederick T. Gelder, chairman of the Liquor Control Board in the warning to dealers said: "The board is planning strict enforcement measures for 1946, especially for places that have no regard for the law of proper conduct of their establishments."

Gelder declared the board is now engaged in rebuilding the enforcement staff up to its normal strength of 225 agents. It now comprises 142 men.

While the board has been diligent in enforcement as indicated by the number of revocations and suspensions ordered in 1945, Gelder said additional emphasis would be placed on control in co-operation with Gov. Edward Martin's recent request to "crack down hard" on law violators as a step toward reducing motor accidents.

Gelder also said that "it was called to the board's attention that numerous licensees have been cashing checks in violation of state law."

Rotarians Hear Address On Medical Oil

At the Rotary meeting yesterday, members were treated to one of their finest programs of the year in which one of Warren's own industrialists gave them an insight into his firm's business. Arthur J. Franks, vice president in charge of production of the Sherwood Refining Company, outlined the process by which raw mineral oil is acid-processed to eliminate all of the visible pigments into a transparent, odorless, and tasteless product that is generally known as "white oil."

He then went on to explain the endless applications for this local product in industry, and ended his intriguing dissertation by giving each member a sample of the finished product.

Fox Hunters Begin Winter Hunts Sunday

(Special) The Warren Field & Stream Club will hold its first fox hunt of the season Sunday, January 20th. The hunt will be staged in the vicinity of Russell and all men who wish to participate are asked to meet at Finley's Store at 10:00 Sunday morning so that the group can use automobiles to best advantage. Those sportsmen who find it more convenient to meet the local hunters in Russell may do so. Shotguns only will be permitted.

Two years ago the Club succeeded in killing 18 fox during their winter hunts, but most of the boys agree that the important thing is the enjoyment of a day spent in the woods among good friends—always anticipating that they will get some shooting—and being absolutely sure they will get good food in the middle of the day. Many of the Club's members who have been in service since before these hunts were started have been particularly anxious to get them going since they had heard about them through friends and through the Times-Mirror and service papers.

More Details Of March Of Dimes Drive

The Warren Zonta Club stresses today the announcement that no March of Dimes solicitation is being made in Warren borough other than the tag day on Saturday of this week and the customary requests for special gifts. There is and will be no house to house canvass. Also announced today is the name of Miss Mary Richwalski as chairman for the tag day in Sheffield.

The drive nationally got off to a good start on Sunday, with the March of Dimes mentioned on most of the coast-to-coast hook-ups of the several broadcasting systems. Under the leadership of Chairmanship of Nicholas M. Schenck, the national motion picture industry's March of Dimes committee is all set for total participation. Greer Garson has again generously consented to make the appeal trailer which will be shown from January 24 to 31st in some 17,000 theatres. Practically every top-notch star in Hollywood has signified a willingness to assist in every way possible for the success of the campaign.

Wage Hike Is Announced By Bell Company

The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania yesterday announced the signing of a contract between the Company and the Pennsylvania Telephone Guild providing for a $5 a week increase for all business office employees in the state, totaling about 1,300. This increase represents a post-war adjustment in wages. The contract was signed after discussions lasting several months. Under the terms of the new contract, the starting rate for inexperienced employees in Warren will be $26 for a five-day week. The basic wage rate progresses by periodic increases to a maximum of $68 a week for Commercial representatives and $44 a week for service representatives. Approximately 5 employees in Warren are affected. The new contract with the business office employees follows the granting of $5 increases to approximately 11,000 operators, announced last week.

STRONG HAND CALLS FOR NO TRUMP FEELER

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY, America's Card Authority

Our old friend, the late William J. Huske, established himself in bridge in Cleveland. In 1929, or thereabouts, he became a New Yorker. Bill always got a kick out of freak hands. When he gave me today's hand, he showed me only the North and South cards, and said, "This hand is ice cold for six no trump, but when I saw it played, declarer was in four spades, and, believe it or not, it could not be made."

West won the first trick with the ace of hearts, and after careful study, continued with the four of hearts. East ruffed with the spade deuce and came back with a club, which West ruffed with the five of spades. Another heart was played. East ruffed and returned another club for West to

So tempting, but...

THE GRAPEVINE bears a new crop of tips and rumors every day. Some folks may occasionally profit by them. But remember this: THE GRAPEVINE will let you down just as surely as night follows day!

This Exchange's disapproval of "grapevine information" has been made clear in these widely published words:

"The well-established principle of disclosure of facts, as the basis upon which security values should be judged, is the essence of Exchange policy. Tips, rumors and impulses have no place in the serious business of advising investors."

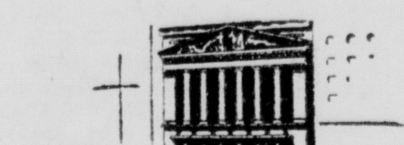

Facts are available. Before any company lists its securities in this investors' marketplace, that company agrees to report, regularly, basic facts concerning its operations and financial condition. Wise, experienced investors know this. Before they act they seek out the facts. Thus, they are able to exercise informed judgment, based upon facts.

Never before has there been available so much factual information to guide responsible buyers and sellers of securities.

Over the past century and a half, ownership of American business enterprise has spread out to millions of homes so that today it is estimated these owners are to be found in one out of every four families. The risks and rewards involved in America's productive progress are shared by the many—and not the few.

This widespread ownership has been possible because investors, large and small, have found in the facilities of this Exchange an open, ready market in which they know they can sell what they have bought—promptly, at prices based upon the supply and demand in the market at the time transactions are completed.

Such a market—free, open and honestly conducted—is a national asset. But, just as the highway builder cannot guarantee the safety of all who ride the roads he builds—this Exchange cannot safeguard you against risk. You, the investing public, must be the "careful driver" on this free open highway to broader national ownership of American business enterprise.

THEY DIDN'T MAKE THE HEADLINES

The most important events of the year just closed didn't get into the headlines, reminds Webb B. Garrison in Your Life Magazine. There was the death of Mussolini and the reported death of Hitler. The United Nations won decisive military victories in Europe and Asia. And the atomic bomb marked the dawn of a new era.

But somewhere, perhaps in your own community, even more important events were quietly taking place. For there were born last year the boys and girls who will shape the future. These events are the most important in any year.

Take, for instance, the twelve months between the battles of Trafalgar and Waterloo. During that one year, Gladstone was born in Liverpool and Oliver Wendell Holmes in Massachusetts. Felix Mendelssohn made his appearance in Hamburg and Alfred Tennyson at the Somersby Rectory. And on the very same day in that same year, Abraham Lincoln was born in Kentucky and Charles Darwin at Shrewsbury.

But, just as in 1945, only the battles made the headlines—and the babies grew up to remake the world.—Webb B. Garrison in Your Life.

ALARM CLOCKS THAT CHEER

Even after all the roar and hubbub of war, there's still one sound that jolts a person right down to his toe tips. It's the clanging bell of the morning alarm clock.

Well, mark it down as a thing of the past. The General Electric Company has just come up with three new electric clocks that will awaken you gradually—entirely—like a summer drumming on the roof overhead.

Take your pick to suit your temperament and wakeability.

1. Instead of jangling a bell, the Beam Alarm flashes the bedside lamp.
2. The Tune-A-Larm turns the bedside radio on to your favorite rise-and-shine program.
3. The Herald has a buzzer that can be modulated right down to a gnat's whisper.

Why even the chronic grouch can get up smiling! According to G. E., these clocks are now in production, and the day is not far distant when they'll be "smiling" at you—and the whole world will be happy as those friendly birds which in spring chirp their merry song from the tree outside your bed room window.

OVERDUE, BUT WELCOME

Shortly before Congress took its year-end recess, Rep. Herman Eberharter of Pennsylvania told his colleagues that he would have a new income tax bill ready and waiting for them when they returned.

"It is my considered opinion," said Mr. Eberharter, "that our country needs a reformation of the federal tax system. We must stop writing amendments on top of amendments. Our people back home . . . want a single and sensible tax program, a program they can understand. They will applaud a Congress that enacts a tax law that is just and equitable."

We should like to start the applause now for Mr. Eberharter's suggestion, which is 15 or 20 years overdue. The income tax law, never a model of clarity or equity, has not been improved by the various amendments and revisions that have been piled on through the years, like so many mustard plasters on the poor taxpayer's aching back.

These ministrations have burned without curing. But Mr. Eberharter seems to be the first of the lawmakers who has boldly come out in favor of trying a new remedy instead of more plasters. We hope that his colleagues in the House will give his sensible proposal some earnest consideration.

Death of Edward T. Beck has brought sorrow to a large group of friends in the city. Mr. Beck was a man of sterling integrity and over a long period of years he has been a foremost figure in this locality. During his career in Warren he engaged in some large contracts, building portions of Route 219 between Kane and Wilcox; laying the concrete road between Warren and Irvine, and in paving many Warren streets. Thousands of feet of Warren sidewalks were also laid by Mr. Beck. During the years he served as street commissioner of the borough of Warren his varied experience in contracting work was available for the borough and he performed his duties well. During the heavy snows of last winter he worked long hours and undoubtedly the strain contributed to his demise. Prominent in affairs of Warren Masonry he had served North Star Lodge No. 241 F. and A. M. as Master. He was also a member of other Masonic bodies. "Ed" will be missed in Warren.

Miller - Bearfield Rites on December 29th is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. John Bearfield, 820 Fourth avenue, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Geraldine H. L. Bearfield, to John S. Miller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Miller, 105 Beaty street.

The ceremony was performed at 7:00 p. m. Saturday, December 29, in First Evangelical church, Rev. J. C. Wygant reading the service before an altar decorated with palms and mixed flowers. Mr. Prichard was at the organ for the wedding march and as accompanist for Nancy Wickstrom, who sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride's frock of white satin was fashioned with sweetheart neckline, fitted waistline beaded in floral design, fitted sleeves ending in points over the wrist, and a long skirt and train of marquisette. A Juliet cap held her fingertip veil and her flowers were white carnations and red roses.

Attending her were her sister, Letha, as maid of honor; Barbara Wolford as bridesmaid and Linda Lee Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Brooks, Niagara Falls, N. Y., niece of the bride.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canadian points, the bride chose a brown princess style dress, green coat, black accessories and rose corsage. She is a graduate of the local high school, Class of 1945. Mr. Miller was recently discharged from the army after four years of service, three of which were in the European theatre. He is now employed by the Niagara Chemical Division of Union Carbide at Niagara Falls, where they will reside at 903 95th street.

Allen Class Enjoys Pleasing Program The Allen Class of First Methodist church enjoyed a tureen dinner in Founders Hall on Thursday, January 9, at 6:30 p. m. Tables were decorated with snow maidens, snow birds, silver leaves and red and white candles.

The committee in charge of dinner was composed of Mrs. Earl Christensen, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. H. L. Blair, Mrs. Ralmer Forsgren, Mrs. R. D. Smedley, Mrs. Raymond Johnson, Miss Lillian Larsen, Mrs. H. A. Wagner, Mrs. A. E. Soderholm, Mrs. A. H. Templeton and Mrs. R. W. Norris.

One of the finest programs of the year was presented in Dunham parlors. Mrs. N. J. Andersen, program chairman, introduced Miss Doris Phillips, of Jamestown, who sang in a very expressive and delightful manner "We Have Turned Again" by Edwin MacArthur, "They Call Me Mimi" by Puccini, and "The Little French Clock" by Kountz. Mrs. Andersen then presented Mrs. Harvey Osgood, also of Jamestown, who read a very salty Cape Cod play and held the interest of an amused audience with her typical New England accent of two old uncles and their favorite nieces. Miss Phillips then pleased the members with "Music I Heard With You" and "Charity" by Hageman, and "Morning" by Speaks.

Mrs. N. D. Peterson, president, conducted the usual business session, with Mrs. R. L. Blodgett in charge of devotions. Mrs. Walter Brown read the secretary's and treasurer's reports.

Foremen Provide Excellent Program For Ladies' Night Fun, fellowship and enjoyable nature education marked the program of the annual Ladies' Night of the Warren Foremen's Club held at the Y. M. C. A. last night, with a good attendance of club members and their wives.

Beginning with a fine dinner at 6:30 o'clock, the evening's program included musical selections, group singing, square dancing and an illustrated lecture. The feature lecture was a most interesting illustrated story of the bird and plant life at Pymatuning Swamp, by Hal H. Harrison, noted nature photographer of Tarentum. Beautiful colored slides, made from Mr. Harrison's own pictures, were shown.

The club president, Ray Lewis, presided, and the entertainment features were arranged by the program committee, of which Chris Pepke is president. Throughout the dinner period, piano and solovox music were much enjoyed, with Lloyd Van Tassel as the able artist. Mr. Van Tassel also accompanied the singing, led by Mr. Pepke.

For the grand march and square dancing, music and calling were provided by the Hamings, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamlin and son, Yayne. Service in the dining room was capably furnished by the Dickson Class of the First Presbyterian church.

Announcement was made of a meeting of the club's board of governors next Monday at 8 p. m., and of the February meeting on the 11th of that month, when Prof. George T. Miller, of Slippery Rock College, will be the speaker on a subject appropriate to Lincoln's Birthday.

Edward Barnhart Weds Youngsville Girl on Saturday

About 160 persons witnessed the double ring ceremony performed at seven o'clock Saturday evening in the Youngsville United Brethren church, when Edward C. Barnhart, of Warren, and Norma Larue Ekis, of Youngsville, were united in marriage by Rev. L. J. Strong, pastor.

The bride was given away by her father, W. C. Ekis, with her sister, Erla Haller, of Norfolk, Va., as maid of honor. Richard Barnhart, of Warren, was best man for his cousin. Ushers were Steward Smith and Robert Freeborough.

The bride wore a street length dress of two tone triple sheer crepe of navy and powder blue. Her corsage was of red roses and a lovely bracelet was a gift of the bridegroom. The "something borrowed" was a sapphire necklace belonging to her sister, Erla Haller. The maid of honor wore black with sequin trim and a corsage of gardenias. The bride's mother wore black with touches of white and corsage of white carnations, while the bridegroom's mother wore pink rosebuds with powder blue.

Miss Norma Haight sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly". She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Treva McKinney, who also played the wedding march. Two bouquets of yellow and white pompons formed the attractive church decorations.

After the ceremony, there was a reception for the bridal party at the bride's home, where a table was decorated with six lighted tapers in silver candelabra and centered with a wedding cake holding a miniature bridal couple. Immediately after the reception, the couple left for a week's honeymoon at the Piccadilly Hotel in New York. Returning January 20, they will reside in Warren.

Stars Flank Pros' Lineup Wednesday

Semi-pro basketball groomed up today for its opening performance on the Beatty hardwood tomorrow night against the Buffalo Colored Barons, and Manager Elmo Wolfe was still working to bring together the five best basketball players available to form the backbone of the Warren Pros.

Leading off the local quintet tomorrow night at 8:30 will be Wolfe, one of Warren's top athletes and the property of the Cincinnati Reds in the National League. Second in line is Nick Grunzweig, the ex-Niagara University star now stationed here with the Army Recruiting Service. "Captain" towers at 6 ft. 7 in. and will be a match for the Barons' heightiest Wednesday.

Also in the lineup will be Bob Hart, former Sheffield "Big Five" star making his return to the game after several years' absence. Jim Duane, of Jamestown, will strengthen the lineup, as will another Jamestown giant yet to be announced.

An attempt to bring Frank Socia, of Erie Pros, here is being made by Wolfe. Socia, a team-mate of Wolfe's at Edinboro State Teachers' College and one of the finest professional players in the area, would give the Pros a very strong starting lineup.

Another basketball great who will see action Wednesday is Ed Moffatt, of Bradford, who was recently discharged from service. Moffatt is a student of Bradford Owl mentor Harold Frame and was a forward on the famous 1941-42 Owl team which won statewide fame for its record.

Other players are being added in order to provide local basketball enthusiasts with first-class basketball exhibition. The preliminary to Wednesday's game has not been announced.

Bottles Dump T-M; Playoff Set For 23rd

Penn Bottles of Sheffield opened the second half of the City Basketball League last night by topping Times-Mirror 46-25, after trailing at halftime. The Youngsville Blomquist clash was forfeited to Blomquist because of Youngsville's failure to appear.

The victory for the Bottlers gave them added strength as they await the playoff for first half laurels. The playoff date has been definitely set for Wednesday, January 23, Sylvania will meet the Bottlers for the championship.

The newspaper boys forged ahead in the first period to take a 9-7 lead, and then they held the Bottlers on an even pace during the second canto to retain their lead, 19-17, at halftime.

The Bottlers returned to the second half to roll up 20 markers in the third stanza while holding the Times to 2 and 9 additional points in the fourth, giving the T-M only 4, to cop the win, 46-25.

This Thursday, Struthers will meet Bakers in the preliminary, and Sylvania tests O'Connors strength in the nightcap at 8:30.

Behind the Lines

Clean-Up Time

It has come to the point where the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association, the governing body of the state's scholastic sports, has a vital task on its hands—and no time or effort should be wasted in going about the job. We're referring to the officials who handle football and basketball games, particularly the cage encounters.

During the war years, many of the top officials were either in the service or engaged in war work, thus keeping them from the games. To cope with the lack of these referees, the PIAA instated many second rate officials in the association. Now that the war is over and many officials are back on the job, there is an abundance of referees—all too many of them not fit for top billing in any game.

Many schools are taking advantage of having a local referee handle all of their home games. Those officials are familiar with the fans and with the players of the home team. Too often there is some partiality shown. Such an incident has—and undoubtedly won't—happen in Warren, but it has been seen in some nearby towns.

To Selma Club

Craig Bennett, the Indian protégé of "Rabbit" Swanson, has been sent to the Selma, Alabama, baseball club by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bennett spent last season with the Hornell Pirates in the Class D. PONY League, where he had a very good record.

Bennett has great possibilities with Selma, a Class B club, and he will start spring training at Tallahassee, Florida. Two other local boys have bids to tryout there, Bob Lundquist and Chuck Clawson. Lundquist is studying foreign service at Notre Dame, and Clawson was recently discharged from the marines after several years' service.

All-American vs. NFL

Three other professional football leagues have joined the National Pro Football League in its fight for survival against the new All-American Conference. The Pacific Coast, Dixie and American Association Leagues have all joined hands with the NFL on the play-by-play basis, and the switch by Cleveland's Rams to Los Angeles has put a major kink in the All-American's schedule of strategy.

For too long the NFL has ruled the pro gridiron sport. Laurels to the All-American Conference for its fight.

Here and There

An irate basketball fan at the Johnsonburg-Wilcox game Friday night slapped Referee GIB Hoffman in the face, loosening bridge-work and cutting the official's lip. With the game tied, 35 apiece, and the fans in a state of confusion, Hoffman called a foul on a Johnsonburg player, but the whistle had blown ending the game. After consultation of officials, the Wilcox player was awarded a foul in an extra period. The foul was missed, but a second attempt was awarded the Wilcox team after a technical foul was called on the Burg crowd. One fan was so angry that he rushed onto the floor and, when ordered off, slapped Hoffman. The PIAA will probably prefer charges against the spectator.

Byron Nelson, the U. S. Treasury's favorite golfer, had his second straight title safely banked away today, the San Francisco Open, along with $3,000 awarded him for winning the tourney.

Notre Dame University has replaced the Wyoming Cowboys as the nation's top ranking basketball team in the colleges. The Irish swamped Great Lakes, 72-50, to stretch their string to 9 straight.

Dogs in Arizona killed more than 30,000 sheep in the Salt River valley during a six-month period.

oldest gymnasium. The opening night will be a warm-up session, enabling managers to form their teams. All games will be played on Monday nights. Grace Methodist against First Lutheran and First Methodist against St. Paul's Lutheran is the schedule for Monday.

J-V's Battle St. Edwards of Corry Tonite

Warren High's Junior Varsity cagers meet the St. Edwards quintet, of Corry, on the Beatty court tonight in the nightcap of a three-game attraction. The first contest, a toss-up between two Junior High teams, will get under way at 6:30; the second, a meeting of North Warren and the Junior High varsity, at 7:30; and the main game at 8:30.

Harry Hutchings, who coaches the lads, hopes to meet with the success of last Friday's trio of games and hopes to boost the sport of basketball among the younger ranks.

Friday, the Jayvees nipped Bakers Cleaners in an overtime match. St. Edwards comes here with a fine record against its opponents this season.

of them appeared to be semi-conscious from shock.

Hospitals of Welch, a city of 7,000 population and the county seat of the biggest bituminous coal producing county in the United States, were quickly filled to overflowing with injured miners and children from the school house.

Edward Mullins and his son James, who apparently were not hurt, told newsmen they were the first to reach the surface from the inner workings.

The father said they were at work about one mile from the shaft in No. 3 entry when they heard the blast and immediately started running.

Mine department records indicated that in normal operations the Havaco mine, located about one-half mile southeast of Welch, employs around 500 men.

At that time he said a woman was seen on Thorndale avenue, near the Degnan home, about 2 a. m. Miss Alice Clemons, Fourth avenue had the misfortune to fall at her home last week and has been removed to the Warren General Hospital suffering from a fracture of one leg. Miss Clemons some months ago suffered a broken hip which confined her to the hospital many weeks. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Woman's Club Has Fashion Showing For Its Program

Monday afternoon, at the regular meeting of the Literature Department of the Woman's Club, its chairman, Mrs. Wallace Cowden, presented a fashion showing of the Calexico Colorama Fashions-by-Air now being featured at Metzger-Wright's, to a large audience of members with the following members as models: Mrs. Charles Blackman, Mrs. Allan Jackson, Mrs. Hugh Jamieson, Mrs. H. R. Lewis, Mrs. J. Hazeltime, Miss Anne Walker and Miss Carolyn Cowden.

Mrs. Cowden first explained the meaning of Calexico Colorama, Calexico being the joining of the two names California and Mexico, choosing the first of the one and the last of the other to make the word "Calexico" just as the colors and prints were taken from Mexico and designed in California by seventeen of the top-ranking designers of California. How the fabric, Tricot Jersey was chosen for the fabric, then how the patterns were designed and the clothes designed, then flown by the American Airlines Airfreight to each of the sixty selected stores throughout the country. Before each group of models were shown, Mrs. Cowden told of the style and the important features of each, and of the ceramic jewels, handbags, and shoes that went to make up the complete coordinated Calexico Colorama.

With Mrs. Harriet Wilkins at the piano the fashion showing was presented. Mrs. Hazeltime was the first to show Louella Ballerino's Serape dress, a serape striped dress with the serape scarf worn in three different ways. Miss Anne Walker who also wore the Wedgie Shoes to match, and Mrs. Allan Jackson also modeled this dress.

Joseph Zukin's play suit in a chili pepper print was then shown by Mrs. Blackman and Mrs. Hazeltime. A one piece play suit featuring the serape gathered fullness at the side with a separate side button skirt. The Catalina Bathing Suits brought forth much admiration as they were shown by Mrs. Jackson, and Mrs. Blackman. Both one and two piece styles were featured in these. Western Fashions Fiesta Rhythm Caban Suit that may be worn for lounging or as a slack suit was next presented by Mrs. Blackman and Mrs. Jamieson.

Bright print and solid color jersey are both featured in this suit, Mrs. Lewis in an Achilles of Hollywood blouse, carrying the other style was next presented, the one side button in the front the other with a scarf neckline that comes from the buttoned back to make an ascot tie. Mrs. Blackman in Junior Miss dress of Mexican Print was next seen, the neckline and short sleeves featuring the self-bot tie. An Aztec Pottery Print by De De Johnson, a sun back dress with low waistline and zipper back with a separate lined jacket was modeled by Miss Walker and Mrs. Lewis.

Carolyn Cowden was charming in an adorable teen dress by Jean Durain, a gray caballero print dress-up dress with embroidered eyelet trim neckline, made especially for the teen girl. Mrs. Jamieson, Mrs. Hazeltime, and Miss Walker wore a stunning Morris & Fyne La Pinada two-tone solid color jersey Matadore dress with a high comb wrap-around hat to match. Showing the different styles of Gilets and wearing one with a black suit, Mrs. Lewis presented Madame Ray of Hollywood's Gilets in the four styles.

The last presentation was that of Demoiselle's Gourditas Print formal with a matching rebousa scarf edged in wide black lace worn by Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Jamieson.

The afternoon was concluded with the serving of tea, with Mrs. William Moore and Mrs. Charles Blackman pouring. Those participating in the fashion showing were entertained at a one o'clock luncheon at the Woman's Club by Mrs. William Wright.
